

WELLNESS COMPANION SERIES

Bladder & Pelvic Symptom Diary

Sixteen three-day diaries in the format clinicians actually ask for

Tracking only · 6 × 9 in

Undated · Personal use · Not medical advice

A note before you begin

This journal is a personal tracking and management tool only. It is not medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment, and it is not a substitute for care from a licensed clinician. It is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or sponsored by any medication manufacturer or healthcare brand. Do not start, stop, or change a medication, meal plan, or activity based on this book. Record only what your own prescriber has directed. If you notice concerning symptoms, seek professional medical care promptly.

This journal is a personal tracking tool. It is not therapy, diagnosis, or treatment. Seek urgent care for chest pain, fainting, thoughts of harm, or a sudden change you cannot explain. Blood in urine, fever with back pain, sudden inability to void, or new incontinence after trauma needs urgent care. This is not a Kegel program.

How to use this journal

Three days in a row, then rest the book

- A bladder diary is usually 2–3 consecutive days: drink time/amount, void time/amount if you measure, leaks, urgency, pads.
- Do not invent pelvic-floor exercises. If a PT gave you homework, there is a line to tick it.
- Bring a completed three-day block to clinic. Sixteen blocks so you can repeat after a change.

Marks & scales

Use these marks consistently so patterns are easy to see later — and easy to share with your care team.

Urgency 0-5	0 none · 5 had to run
Leak	Tick if it happened
