

THE DOPAMINE MENU

An ADHD Journal for Ordering Your Stimulation

150 undated pages

QUIET MIND PRESS

The Dopamine Menu

The dopamine menu turns regulation into a restaurant you run.
Build your starters, mains, sides, specials and desserts, then order from them daily — appetite check, service time, after-taste rating.

For ADHD, AuDHD, and anyone whose stimulation diet needs a chef.

How to use this journal

The menu

Five courses, filled in by you, on pages 5–6.

Daily orders

Three items a day with category tags, appetite check, after-taste dots.

Menu refresh

Every twelve orders, rotate: retire what stopped working, promote what didn't.

Index

The last two pages re-copy your working menu as a quick reference.

BUILD YOUR MENU

The five courses

STARTERS

Quick wins under five minutes — a song, cold water, one tidy surface, step outside.

MY STARTERS

MAINS

Deep-flow meals — the project, the gym, the hobby that eats an afternoon.

MY MAINS

SIDES

Ten-minute fillers that go beside the hard thing — stretch, sketch, walk the block.

MY SIDES

BUILD YOUR MENU

The quiet courses

SPECIALS

Rare treats you deliberately ration — the nice candle, the long bath, the good chocolate.

MY SPECIALS

DESSERTS

The sneaky ones — scrolling, snoozing, one more episode. Keep them on the menu, portioned.
