

Softer Words

A gratitude and self-talk diary for ordinary hard days

Stillwork Studio

THE RITUAL LIBRARY

A note before you begin

This diary is for personal reflection. It is not psychotherapy, crisis support, medical care, or a substitute for support from a qualified professional. Skip any prompt that feels unhelpful and seek appropriate help when needed.

This book makes room for the whole truth: gratitude and grief, progress and pause, tenderness and uncertainty.

Copyright © 2026 Stillwork Studio. All rights reserved.

Prepublication candidate: do not publish until the brand-owned QR/audio route, claims review, KDP preflight, and physical-proof gates are complete.

You do not have to earn a kinder voice.

This diary does not ask you to turn every day into a lesson. It asks only: what happened, what helped, and what sentence would make the day gentler to carry?

My believable affirmations

Try sentences that are kind and plausible, not grand.

WORDS THAT FEEL TRUE ENOUGH TO PRACTICE

WHAT I WANT MORE OF IN MY SELF-TALK

Day 1

“What felt tender today?”

WHAT FELT HARD?

WHAT DID I DO WITH CARE?

A KIND SENTENCE I CAN BELIEVE

ONE SMALL GRATITUDE

Day 2
