THE RITUAL LIBRARY

A note before you begin

This journal is a wind-down and reflection tool. It does not diagnose or treat sleep conditions or give medical advice. If sleep changes, symptoms, or distress are concerning, speak with an appropriate health professional.

Use this book as a bedside landing place. You do not need to complete a page for it to have done its job.

WELCOME

Let the day end on paper.

Write one thought, choose one comfort, or simply read the prompt and close the book. The aim is not a perfect night; it is a gentler transition.

My wind-down menu

Keep this practical and personal: light, a glass of water, a page, a text, a pause.
