PARALLEL LIVES

A side-by-side journal for divided minds

160 undated pages

QUIET MIND PRESS

Parallel Lives

Every spread splits the page in two. Left and right. What happened and how it felt. What you said and what you meant. The gap between the two sides is where the insight lives. Undated. Start anywhere. 7 × 10 in.

How to use this journal

- Each spread has two columns with complementary prompts.
- Write in the left column first. Then the right. Or switch.
- Every 10 spreads, a reflection page asks what you noticed.
- The point isn't balance. It's awareness.

What pattern do you see?

Which side was easier to write?

Where did the two sides disagree most?

What surprised you?

What would a compassionate observer say about the gap?
