

Dose & Breathe

A mindful weekly companion for your GLP-1 journey

Arden Vellor

THE RITUAL LIBRARY

A note before you begin

This journal is a personal reflection tool for adults using prescribed GLP-1 medication. It does not provide dosing, injection, nutrition, exercise, or medical advice. Follow the instructions supplied by your prescriber and pharmacist, and bring health questions or concerning symptoms to an appropriate professional. In an emergency, seek urgent help.

Use only the pages that serve you. Blank space is a complete entry.

WELCOME

WELCOME

This is a ritual, not a report card.

Before a routine, appointment, or difficult week, pause. Notice what is here.
Choose one small thing that helps. Keep only what is useful.

My support map

This page is for your own notes. It is not a replacement for medical instructions.

MY CARE TEAM / IMPORTANT CONTACTS

WHAT I WANT TO REMEMBER ABOUT MY PREFERENCES

A two-minute weekly rhythm.

On the first page, make an optional routine note and follow the box-breath visual only if it feels comfortable. On the second, notice comfort, rest, support, and one kind next step.

My reasons for gentleness

You can revise these at any time.

WHAT I HOPE THIS JOURNAL MAKES EASIER

WHAT I DO NOT WANT THIS JOURNAL TO BECOME

A SENTENCE TO RETURN TO

Personal compass

There is no need to use every field.

WHEN I FEEL OVERWHELMED, WHAT HELPS?

WHEN I NEED SUPPORT, WHO OR WHAT CAN I TURN TO?

A REMINDER I WANT TO KEEP CLOSE

Before week one

Your data belongs to you. Curiosity is enough.

WHAT WOULD “ENOUGH” LOOK LIKE THIS MONTH?

WHAT AM I CURIOUS TO NOTICE?

WHAT DO I WANT TO LEAVE OUT OF THIS JOURNAL?
